NOTICE 29.12.2023

In view of the stand taken by the University before the Hon'ble High Court at Calcutta, in various matters in regards to the issue of renewal of affiliation of the self-financed B.Ed. Colleges and M.Ed. Colleges for the academic year 2023-24, the colleges who have not been affiliated for the current academic year, but has since complied with the stipulations as envisaged in the notice dated 31.07.2023, may apply to the University for the purpose of renewal of their affiliation with the copies of the documents evincing such compliance. The colleges are directed to submit a copy of the Fire Safety Certificate ERC Faculty List and DBT of the salaries paid to the teachers of the said colleges. The University however has already received a good number of such compliance letters with copy of documents.

It is also stated that as large number of interviews are being held at the University premises for the purpose of appointment of Asst. Professors and Principal of various colleges, and as the same is a time-consuming process, the University proposes that the colleges instead of inducting the names of newly appointed teachers in the ERC list and get it approved by the University may in the alternative submit the current ERC List along with the Score Sheet of Selected Teachers, appointment letters and Joining Letters respectively. The said exercise will in effect to expedite the process of grant of affiliation.

The University assures that upon receiving the documents of the colleges for the purpose of renewal of affiliation, it shall forthwith scrutinize the documents and shall renew the affiliation within a period of 6 days from such submission.
